Going to Grandmas for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is my _____ time of year. I like getting together with my _____ over a _____ dinner. The only bad (noun) (adj)
(adj)

part about the holiday is the _____ to my grandmother's (verb)

house. She _____ in _____, which is quite a (verb) (place)

ways from my house in _____. I have no room to sit (place)

in the _____ because my sister takes up the whole (noun)

backseat with her _____s and _____s! Maybe this (noun) (noun)

year instead of _____ing we'll take a _____ instead.

Our Classroom Feast

I love Thanksgiving because I get time off from school! The week before school is let out, my class spends time making _____

(adj)

Thanksgiving decorations like _____ turkeys and pilgrims.
(adj)

Then we _____ them all over the classroom. Everything always (verb)

looks so _____! On the last day of school before vacation, my (adj)

_____ invites the other classrooms in our grade to a _____
(noun) (adj)

feast! Each person has to bring one _____ for our feast to share with the group. I am bringing a _____. There is so much _____ (noun) (adj)
(noun)

food on the table that we have to use one classroom just to put the food out and another to _____ our Thanksgiving feast in!

(verb)

Help the Pilgrims and Native Americans find their way through the maze to the Thanksgiving feast.
