

The object of the game is to guess the right word/phrase before your opponent draws the "body" of a man. One player (your opponent) writes blank lines for each letter of a word or phrase. You and the other players must guess what the letters are. If you guess correctly, the letters are filled in on the appropriate line. If you guess incorrectly, your opponent begins to draw a person -- first the head, then the neck, and so on. If you and the other players correctly guess the word or phrase before the hangman is completely drawn, you win!
