

Practice parts of speech with this fun printable. Work with a partner to fill in the blanks with appropriate words. Then read your silly travel tale.

It was a/an _____ Sunday, and Dad woke me up early for our car trip to _____. So, I dressed quickly, packed my (fictional place)
(adjective)

backpack full of _____, and rushed outside, where Dad, Mom, and my (plural noun)

sister _____ were waiting for me in the car. And then we took off. We (fictional name)

drove down the highway, past _____ and _____. Mom (noun) (noun)

started singing _____ and we all joined in. We all had a good laugh (song title)

when Dad joined in with his _____ voice. Later, my sister and I played (adjective)

_____, but we had to stop when the _____ flew out the (noun) (plural noun)

window. On the side of the road, Dad saw a _____ and he (noun)

_____ the car over. It was nice to get out of the car for a while to (verb/past tense)

_____ my _____, but we were only there for a little while.
(verb) (noun)

Soon we were back on the _____. I hoped that we would get there soon because I have to admit I was getting a bit _____. I couldn't wait to (noun)
(noun)

_____. "Are we there yet," I asked. To this my father _____ (verb/past tense) (verb/past tense)

and responded, "We're not there until we're _____."
(noun)