Aaron and Jason both wanted to take a picture of their parents at the scenic rest area. But somehow each picture turned out a little different! Can you find the nine differences between the two snapshots?

Heading Home

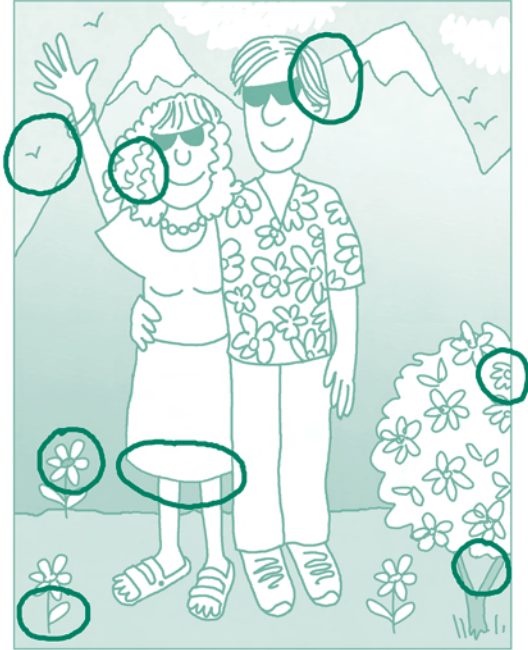

You have finished your vacation at the beach—now it's time to return home. Start at the word SEA. Travel one space at a time making compound words as you go until reaching the word HOME. You can move up and down, and side to side, but not diagonally!
