

Pretty Postcards

Sonja is driving with her family from your home in Maine back to her house in California. On the way she stops in eighteen different states. At each stop she mails you a postcard with the state abbreviation on it. But the postcards don't arrive at your house in order! See if you can plot Sonja's trip on the map below. Shade in each state as you put the postcards in order from Maine to California.

PUZZLE ANSWERS

Pretty Postcards

